

We are hiring!

Representative Workforce Consultant Moose Jaw or Regina

WHY WORK AT SASK POLYTECH?

Indigenous peoples are an important part of our campus community. Indigenous students make up 20% of Sask Polytech's student population. Sask Polytech has a number of initiatives in place to welcome both Indigenous students and employees to our campus communities.

The Position: Representative Workforce Consultant

Posting Title: Representative Workforce Consultant

Competition Number: P15688

The Representative Workforce Consultant is part of the HR Strategy Development team and works in close collaboration with other HR partners, the Sask Polytech community, and external partners to lead EDII-related work. Based at any of the Saskatchewan Polytechnic locations (Prince Albert, Saskatoon, Regina, or Moose Jaw), this position is responsible to lead the development, implementation and continued nurturing of an Indigenous representative workforce strategy aligned with Sask Polytech's EDII Strategy. The Representative Workforce Consultant will also assist with other intersecting diversity areas in support of Sask Polytech's broader EDII goals and priority areas.

This position has been designated for Indigenous persons under Saskatchewan Polytechnic's employment equity program.

Location: Multiple Locations (Please check posting details)

Classification: Band 8

Qualifications, Skills & Abilities

1. A post-secondary degree in human resources, Indigenous studies, adult education, or a related discipline is required, along with a minimum of five years of progressive and related experience working in cross-cultural environments, particularly among First Nations and Metis communities, organizations, and agencies.
2. Knowledge of Indigenous (First Nations, Metis and Inuit) history, customs, and socio-cultural issues, as well as understanding of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) Calls to Action. Established professional credibility and proven success in building positive relationships within Indigenous communities and educational circles is essential.
3. Demonstrated experience in developing and delivering training and/or providing mentorship and coaching to leaders on Indigenous representative workforce and diversity-related topics, in both in-person and virtual environments.

For more information or to apply, we invite you to visit:

GotoApply.ca/SaskPolyTech

